

BREAKFAST AT THE BAC

Speaker Series

All day ... and all of the night ... we're together

Thursday, April 20th, 7:30 a.m.— 9:00 a.m.

Family businesses. Maybe not ALL day and night, but multi-generational businesses might be more dependent on getting along because of their intersection of business and personal relationships. Stevie Dawn brings her Ph.D in Emotional Intelligence to Breakfast at the BAC as moderator of a panel discussion of family businesses, including Empire Roofing/Disposal, Dalworth Cleaning and QCS Unlimited.

Sandra Sedillo-McGlothlin, EMPIRE ROOFING, INC.

Co-Founder of Empire Roofing, Inc., a successful and award-winning, multi-million dollar Fort Worth-based business launched in 1982 that has grown to become the largest commercial roofing company in the southern United States with 13 locations, one being in Mexico. She is also the Co-Founder of Empire Texas Equities (a real estate investment firm) and Empire Disposal (commercial & construction waste disposal).

Cheryl McGlothlin-Chapman, EMPIRE ROOFING, INC.

As an Account Executive, Mrs. Chapman is responsible for meeting potential and existing clients and figuring out how Empire can help them maintain their roofs while saving money. She also goes on the roofs so she can put together estimates for her clients as well as putting together reports and proposals for them. Cheryl is also responsible for branding, creating company awareness, website development and marketing.
